ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

Demetrius Brown

Case 05-142M-MPT.

Defendant

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I—Findings of Fact

- ☐ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a ☐ federal offense ☐ state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is
- ☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
- ☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
- ☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____
- ☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
- ☐ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.
- ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the ☐ date of conviction ☐ release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).
- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

- X (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
- X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____
- ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
- X (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by X clear and convincing evidence X a preponderance of the evidence: Probable cause was found to support the criminal complaint. The charge against defendant is a drug offenses under 21 USC §841(a)(1), possession with intent to distribute cocaine (crack). This is a rebuttable presumption case. Detention was found on the following bases:

- Two prior drug offense convictions as an adult, including trafficking in cocaine. Defendant is 24 years old.
- Over 10 juvenile offense conviction, 12 of which would constitute as felonies.
- No stable work history.
- Numerous VOPs since his conviction in 2002 for maintaining a dwelling for keeping a controlled substance.
- Presently 7 outstanding arrests for which defendant is awaiting trial, all of which occurred in 2005 and include drug related offenses.
- Outstanding warrant by WPD for terroristic threatening and harassment.
- At the time of the federal offense, defendant was on state release for the offenses noted in paragraph 5.
